Subject: Indivisible TX Lege Actions for the Week!
Date: Sunday, November 24, 2019 7:07:57 PM

Hi y'all!

It's another week, which means another opportunity to get to work for a better Texas. Here are a few actions to get progress moving in our state.

1. Tell everyone you know that we need more candidates to run for office before December 9!

The deadline to file for the 2020 election is just over two weeks away, and there are still several uncontested State Representative races across Texas. If you're not able to run, please share this information with your friends, families, coworkers, and fellow activists. We can't flip the state if we don't get people to run, and we can't hold our elected officials accountable if they don't have to work to get reelected.

And for motivation, here are a few of the uncontested incumbents:

Kyle Kacal- Bryan/College Station - sponsored the Campus Carry Law, is anti-abortion, voted against equal pay for women

Kyle Biedermann- New Braunfels / Fredricksburg - sponsored bill to allow adoption agencies to discriminate based on religion, is anti-abortion and anti-immigrant

Mayes Middleton- Galveston - sponsored bill to allow businesses to discriminate, is anti-abortion and anti-immigrant, and encourages permit-less carry of firearms

2. Donate to candidates who have stepped up to run

17 of the Texas House representatives races that Republicans won were decided by less than 10% of the vote in 2018. Let's help the group 17 <10 flip those seats! Donations will go to register voters in targeted areas.

3. Volunteer to GOTV in the January 28 runoff elections

Two house seats will have a runoff election in January. Volunteer to help get out the vote for these candidates!

Have a great Thanksgiving everyone!

Much love,
