Hi y'all,

It's been a rough year at the lege. Really rough. While there is a lot of negative happening out there, let's make sure we don't lose sight of all of the good. Take a few minutes to stop and think about the good things that happened, the hard work you've put in, and the incredible people you've met as we stand up for democracy and our communities.

Where are we now?

- New maps for State House, State Senate, and State Board of Education have been sent to the Governor's Office
- Congressional Maps continue to be debated in Conference Committee
 - Watch: Interview with Michael Li of the Brennan Center (starts at 2:45)
- HB 25, the anti-trans athlete bill, passed the House, went to the Senate, and is back in the House with an amendment
- The 3rd Special Session will end on Tuesday. It's unclear if a 4th Special Session will be called.

Here are a few things we can do the week:

1. Vote

Vote in this Fall's Election!

Early voting starts on Monday, October 18 and runs through October 29. November 2 is Election Day, but try to vote early if you can! There are 8 constitutional amendments on your ballot, and many areas have important school board, city council, and other issues up for a vote. Read more about them, including our recommendation on how to vote on them at our website.

2. Call

Call your State Rep and State Senator to Protect Public Health and Oppose Vaccine Mandate Bans

Keep calling your legislators to push them to stand up for public health and keep workers safe.

3. Learn

Attend the New York Times' Global Climate Hub November 3-11

Climate change is an issue that impacts all of us. Learn more about climate change and how we can adapt and thrive in a changing world.

That's it for this week. Don't forget to take a minute to focus on the good, relax, and do something fun!

Much love,
Marieke
